

Hanan Fahmy, MD, Ed.M. FASN

Internist and Nephrologist

Education:

- Internal medicine residency at University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
- Chief Residency at University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
- Nephrology fellowship at Boston University.
- Master of Education (Ed.M.) with an Emphasis in Health Profession Education and Concentration on Human Resource Development from University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.
- American Board certified in internal medicine and nephrology.
- National Board of Physicians and Surgeons certified in internal medicine and nephrology.

Experience:

- More than 25 years experience in internal medicine and nephrology.
- Currently:
  - Private Practice, solo. Signature Kidney Care in Irving, TX.
  - Telemedicine practice in nephrology.

Society Membership:

- Fellow of the American Society of Nephrology (FASN)
- National Kidney Foundation
- Society of Point of Care Ultrasound.
- Society of Bedside Medicine

Interests:

- Interest in clinical internal medicine with special interest in management of hypertension (high blood pressure), kidney disease including kidney stones, protein and blood in urine, glomerular disease, acid-base disturbances, and fluid and electrolytes (sodium, potassium, calcium and magnesium).

Other Interests:

- Teaching, Mentoring, Life-long learner, reading, walking patient and physician advocate

Languages:

- Arabic (Advanced spoken and written)
- Spanish (Basic - medical communication with patients)